

Calling all artists and photographers!

Enter Good Cheer's poster contest for their second annual Harvest Party and Music fest to be held Saturday, September 11, 2010. More than 300 people enjoyed last year's day of great community music, garden tours, tasty food served by local nonprofit organizations, and free workshops.

The winning design (as selected by the festival steering committee) will be reproduced on our festival poster, website, and other materials which will be distributed throughout the area. The chosen artist will receive a $250 check and will be an honored guest at the festival. The artwork becomes the property of Good Cheer.

The framed original artwork will be auctioned off during the event, and posters will be for sale throughout the Festival as a fundraiser for Good Cheer's on-site garden. In addition, all submitted artwork will be on display during the day of the event.

Let our mission of creating a hunger-free community inspire your creation, with a primary focus on the garden and a secondary focus on the music festival.
